Ron Rash is an award winning author of several novels and poetry books. He will be discussing his recent novel Serena.

Serena is the story of young Boston newlyweds, who in 1929 move to the mountains of North Carolina to run a logging business. When Serena learns her husband has betrayed their marriage vows, she sets on a path of revenge and jealousy. Serena has been made into a major motion picture starring Bradley Cooper and Jennifer Lawrence and has a release date for this winter.
